3. SUBSCRIPTIONS

- (a) The entrance fee shall be no less than thirty dollars ($40.00) and any new member's subscription shall be calculated pro rata in quarters from the date of acceptance for that year only.
- (b)
 - (i) The annual subscription should not be less than fifty dollars ($50.00), plus the cost of the Guild stamp(s).
 - (ii) The annual subscription shall fall due on January 1 of each year.
 - (iii) When applied to a new member of the Guild, the annual subscription shall be calculated pro rata, in quarters, from the date of membership acceptance, for that year only.
- (c) Overseas visiting applicants, if admitted, shall be charged an entrance fee of not less than seventy-five dollars ($75.00), which amount, plus quarterly subscriptions and cost of stamp(s) and insert(s) shall cover the period not exceeding three (3) months, at the conclusion of which the visiting member, should he/she elect to do so, and if permitted to stay in excess of three (3) months, shall pay an additional fee of not less than seventy-five ($75.00) plus quarterly subscriptions for each and every ensuing three (3) months or part thereof during the period of his/her visit, which shall not exceed twelve (12) months. If, after twelve (12) months, the visiting member elects to reside in the country indefinitely, conditions of membership shall be in accordance with Rules 3 (a) and (b).
- (d) Overseas Certificates shall be issued to members going abroad and shall be valid for a permit of one (1) year or part thereof, at $2.00 per year, payable in advance. Such certificates are subject to renewal each additional year. During such absence abroad, the member's annual subscription will be waived.
- (e) As from January each year, a list of names, addresses and phone numbers of all financial members, noting that they are either Arrangers, Electronic Arrangers, or Copyists (part thereof or combination), shall be made available with the first MAGA Incorporated notice of the year.
