12. PAYMENT DEFAULT

- (a) Except where agreements exist between Client and member, if payment in full is not received upon delivery of the work, the account is due and payable within thirty (30) days.
- (b) In the case of default, the Guild shall be empowered to initiate such action as is deemed necessary (including legal action, if so sanctioned by the National Executive), to recover monies owed to members, by way of fees and charges, in respect of any work undertaken by the member(s) concerned. Where legal action is initiated, the Guild shall charge such member(s) a fee of not less than 20% of the legal costs incurred on behalf of the member(s). Any monies recovered as a result, directly or indirectly of any such action, shall be lodged in the Trust account operated by the Guild and the Guild shall deduct the appropriate fee from the monies, before payment is made to the member(s) concerned.
