21. VIOLATIONS

- (a) No member will be permitted to render services for any unfinancial or suspended member.
- (b) Accepting arrangements/orchestrations or copying on contingency or speculation is strictly forbidden.
- (c) It shall be deemed a violation for any member to take credit directly or indirectly for any orchestration or other musical treatment made by another person. Whenever mention of credit is given for an orchestration or other musical treatment, the name of the bona fide orchestrator must be used.
- (d) It shall be deemed a violation for any member to engage the services of a non-member, a suspended member or unfinancial member of the Guild.
- (e) The Electronic Arranger may not, at any time, produce a printed (graphic) manuscript, either hand-written or computer-generated, from the work, for use in live performance.
